2. Event Arrangements

- Choir Rehearsal (After Thursday service on November 6 and around 1:15–1:45 PM on November 8)
 - Full-time students must participate in the student choir and perform on Theology Day; choir members must attend rehearsals.
 - Non-choir members, new students, and graduates are not required to attend rehearsals.
 - Part-time students interested in joining the choir should register via the “Theology Day Choir – Part-time Students Registration Form” by October 16, participate in two practices, and attend the final rehearsal on November 8.
- Theology Day Preparations (From about 10:00 AM on November 8)
 - All full-time students must participate in and assist with preparations for Theology Day.
 - The Student Union will distribute duty rosters later; please show up punctually for assigned duties. The Divinity School will provide a simple lunch for helpers.

- Full-time students unable to attend must submit absence request online by October 16 to facilitate duty arrangements.
- Group Photo Arrangement (November 8)
 - Assemble at Chung Chi College Chapel at 2:15 PM; the group photo taking will be started at 2:30 PM. Family and friends cannot join during the photo session.
 - Due to a large number of participants and tight schedule, please be punctual and ensure proper school uniform or academic gown.
- Seating Arrangement
 - New students and graduates must be seated according to the seating allocation by 3:10 PM for attendance checking.
 - Choir members should assemble at the Chapel car park before 3:10 PM to line up for the procession.
 - The seating allocation will be posted on the Theology Day webpage and emailed one week before the ceremony; choir seating will be assigned during the November 6 rehearsal. For issues, contact events@theology.cuhk.edu.hk.
 - Choir, new students, and graduates' programme booklets will be on their seats; no need to request from the reception.
 - Students with multiple identities should prioritize seating in the following order:
 1. Choir Member > 2. New Student/Graduate > 3. Scholarship Recipient
- Student Presentation Arrangements
 - New Students: Teachers will invite new students of the same programme to stand at their original positions for introduction, then be seated; all new students stand during prayer, then be seated after.
 - Graduates: Assemble as instructed at the side passage; go on stage when called, take a photo with the Director (and Chairperson of the Theological Council), and wait below the stage as instructed. After all graduates of the same programme are introduced, return for a group photo, then return to seats; all graduates stand during prayer, then be seated after.

Divinity School of Chung Chi College degree (BD/MTheol/DTheol) graduates will receive diplomas on stage.

CUHK degree (BA/MDiv/MACS/MPhil/PhD) graduates should collect diplomas from CUHK's Examinations and Registration Section (BA) or Graduate School as per earlier university correspondence.

 - Scholarship recipients: Assemble as instructed; when called, go on stage to receive the scholarship and take a photo, then return to seat.

3. Ceremony

- After 3:20 PM, the entrance will be closed temporarily and reopened after the procession.
- Please turn off or set your phone to silent during the ceremony.

- The chapel's air conditioning is not easily adjustable; advise guests to bring warm clothing.
- Official photography is handled by the organizer; inform family and friends not to take photos at the front to avoid disruption.

4. Academic Gown Rental and Return

- Divinity School graduates must submit gown rental forms and cheques by October 16.
- Collection times and locations: during office hours November 5–7 at the Divinity School general office (LG1, President Chi-tung Yung Memorial Building), or on November 8, 11:00 AM–2:00 PM at Chung Chi College Activity Centre.
- Gowns should be returned within 30 minutes after the ceremony at the Chapel's Activity Centre, or by December 8 during office hours at the Divinity School.
- CUHK graduates should register for gown rental via the University official vendor "Tick Your Gown" at least seven days before pickup.
