Tutorial: 1:30–2:15pm CKB UG04 (Group 1), CKB UG03 (Group 2); 4:30–5:15pm, CKB UG04 (Group 3)
[Undergraduate Programs]

Course Code: THEO1211

Title in English: Introduction to the Hebrew Bible

Title in Chinese: 希伯來聖經導論

Course Description:

This course orientates students to the diverse scholarship which encompasses the study of the Hebrew Bible: from archaeology, historical-critical, grammatico-historical, socio-historical and ideological/theological methodologies to the history of composition of the biblical books, languages, religions and literature of the period before the common era. Inevitably, it also introduces the world of the ancient Near East — its history, religions and literature, which the Hebrew Bible belonged and related to. This course traces the challenges confronted by the nation of Israel from its beginning up until the period of the Second Temple.

Learning Outcomes:

1. The students will know and understand
  - a. the general overview of the contents in the Hebrew Bible;
  - b. the direct relationship of the composition of the books to their contexts;
  - c. a general grasp of the scholarship pertaining to the study of the Hebrew Bible;
  - d. the meaning of the Hebrew Bible as Christian Canon/Scripture.
2. The students can describe, explain and discuss
  - a. the main issues related to the critical study of the books in the Hebrew Bible;
  - b. the main issues of critical scholarship concerning the composition and redaction of the books, as well as the origin and identity of Israel;
  - c. the proposed historical contexts of the Hebrew Bible;
  - d. the relationships or/and tensions between the traditions underlying the theological motivations and the contemporary situation(s) of the text;
  - e. the various ways to engage further research for the Hebrew Bible.
3. The students will appreciate
  - a. the making/compilation of the Hebrew Bible;
  - b. the necessity for language acquisition in the study of the Hebrew Bible;
  - c. c. the diverse research faculties in the study of the Hebrew Bible.

Learning Activities:

The course consists mainly of lectures, interwoven with tutorial sessions, class discussion, independent reading, and research activities. The average time allocation (per week) of the learning activities is as follows:

Lecture		Class Discussion / Tutorial		Reading and Research		Written Assignments / Blackboard Posts
In class	Out of Class	In class	Out of Class	In class	Out of Class	In class	Out of Class
1.5 hr		1 hr	1 hr		3 hrs		2.5 hrs

Academic Honesty and Plagiarism:

Attention is drawn to University policy and regulations on honesty in academic work, and to the disciplinary guidelines and procedures applicable to breaches of such policy and regulations. Details may be found at <http://www.cuhk.edu.hk/policy/academichonesty/>.

With each assignment, students will be required to submit a signed declaration that they are aware of these policies, regulations, guidelines and procedures. In the case of group projects, all students of the same group should be asked to sign the declaration, each of whom is responsible should there be any plagiarized contents in the group project, irrespective of whether he/she has signed the declaration and whether he/she has contributed directly or indirectly to the plagiarized contents.

For assignments in the form of a computer-generated document that is principally text-based and submitted via VeriGuide, the statement, in the form of a receipt, will be issued by the system upon students' uploading of the soft copy of the assignment. Assignments without the properly signed declaration will not be graded by teachers. Only the final version of the assignment should be submitted via VeriGuide.

The submission of a piece of work, or a part of a piece of work, for more than one purpose (e.g. to satisfy the requirements in two different courses) without declaration to this effect shall be regarded as having committed undeclared multiple submission. It is common and acceptable to reuse a turn of phrase or a sentence or two from one's own work; but wholesale reuse is problematic. In any case, agreement from the course teacher(s) concerned should be obtained prior to the submission of the piece of work.

Excellent (grade ≥ 8.5): The student demonstrates critical comprehension and analysis of the assigned articles/essays. A succinct summary and analytic comparison are provided with the authors' different approaches, perspectives, theses, arguments clearly stated. The weaknesses and strengths of each author are discussed. Each author's presuppositions are unpacked and critiqued with textual evidence. The student engages the articles/essays in dialogue with the contemporary situation and social locations of the student's own. The student demonstrates a reflective awareness of how his/her/hir own social locations, preconceptions, and contexts have affected the reception of these articles/essays. The post is well argued, organized, structured, logical, grammatically sound, and sources are properly cited and acknowledged.

Good (8.5 > grade ≥ 7): The student demonstrates good comprehension and analysis of the assigned articles/essays. A summary and analytic comparison are provided with most of the authors' different approaches, perspectives, theses, arguments stated. The student is able to detect some strengths and weaknesses in the authors' arguments and unpack some of the authors' presuppositions with textual evidence. The student engages the articles/essays in dialogue with the contemporary situation or social locations of the student's own. The student demonstrates some awareness of how his/her/hir own social locations, preconceptions, and contexts have affected the reception of these articles/essays. The post is fairly argued, fairly organized, fairly structured, comprehensible, with few grammatical errors, and sources are cited and acknowledged.

Fair (7 > grade ≥ 5.5): The student demonstrates limited comprehension and analysis of the assigned articles/essays. A summary and/or analytic comparison are provided but miss out some crucial elements in the authors' different approaches, perspectives, theses, arguments. The student detects some strengths and weaknesses in the authors' arguments or unpack some of the authors' presuppositions but fails to justify these observations with textual evidence. The student has not adequately engaged the articles/essays in dialogue with the contemporary situation or social locations of the student's own. The student has limited awareness of how his/her/hir own social locations, preconceptions, and contexts have affected the reception of these articles/essays. The post contains logical flaws in arguments, lacks organization, and contains grammatically errors and wrong word choices. Some source citations are missing.

Poor/Inadequate (grade < 5.5): The student lacks understanding of the articles/essays. Either a summary or analytic comparison is missing. The student has not satisfactorily pointed out the authors' different approaches, perspectives, theses, arguments, nor detected the strengths and weaknesses in the authors' arguments, nor unpacked the authors' presuppositions with textual evidence. The student has not engaged the articles/essays in dialogue with the contemporary situation or social locations of the student's own. The student has limited (or no) awareness of how his/her/hir own social locations, preconceptions, and contexts have affected the reception of these articles/essays. The post is poorly argued, disorganized, incomprehensible, and contains many grammatically errors and wrong word choices, and sources are not cited or acknowledged.

Use of Generative Artificial Intelligence (AI) Tools in Teaching, Learning, and Assessment:

Approach 3 – Use Only with Explicit Acknowledgement

Students may use AI tools in certain class activities and assignments, provided they explicitly acknowledge and properly cite the input from AI tools.

Acknowledging Support from AI Tools

Students are required to acknowledge all functional uses of a generative AI tool and cite it when they paraphrase, quote, or incorporate any content (whether text, image, data, or other formats) that was created by the tool.

- Example of Acknowledgement:

"I acknowledge the use of [name of AI tool—e.g., ChatGPT (<https://chat.openai.com>)] to [specify the support, e.g., plan my essay, generate ideas for content, ask for examples of data collection instruments, get dates of historical events, etc.]."

- Example of Citation:

OpenAI. (2023). ChatGPT (Mar 20 version). <https://chat.openai.com/chat>.

- Example of Including Texts Generated by an AI Tool in Your Work:

"The following text was generated by an AI tool/language model (e.g., ChatGPT):
[Insert the text generated by ChatGPT here.]"

- Example of Including Texts Generated by an AI Tool and the Prompts Used:

"[The prompt], as generated by an AI language model (e.g., ChatGPT):
[Insert the text generated by ChatGPT in response to the prompt.]"

Students are reminded to use AI tools responsibly and ethically and to be aware of their limitations. It is recommended that students clarify with the course teacher and obtain permission if necessary, when in doubt.
